

Center for Creative Change

presents two lectures in a series on GLOBAL ISSUES AND PERSPECTIVES

Economic PERSPECTIVES on Globalization

Bill Center retired from the U.S. Navy as Rear Admiral in 1999 after 35 years of distinguished service. He is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy and the University of Washington Graduate School of Public Affairs. During his naval career, Center commanded three ships and served in a variety of assignments at sea and ashore. Center is a specialist in policy analysis, strategic planning and organizational development. He served as a senior adviser to the Joint Chiefs of Staff on arms control, non-proliferation, environmental matters and international agreements. Since retiring from the Navy, he has devoted himself to nonprofit leadership and volunteer work.

Don Comstock earned his Ph.D. from Stanford University. He was founder and president of the Washington Association for Community Economic Development in Seattle and is past executive director of the Pacific County Economic Development Council, Raymond, Wash. He served on the board of directors and as secretary of the national Congress for Community Economic Development. His professional interests include political economy, adult learning and social change, action research, globalization, critical theory and organization theory.

Wed., May 5, 7 to 9 p.m.

Building a Better World: Trade as Part of the Solution to World Problems

featuring Bill Center, president of the Washington Council on International Trade, a nonprofit, nonpartisan association of trade interests in Washington state

Wed., June 9, 7 to 9 p.m.

Globalization and its Discontents

featuring Don Comstock, Ph.D., core faculty in the Graduate Management Program, Antioch University Seattle Center for Creative Change

Antioch campus, room 100

Antioch University, 2326 Sixth Ave., Seattle

For more information, contact Debra Alderman in the Antioch Center for Creative Change at (206) 268-4906 or dalderman@antiochsea.edu.

antioch

University Seattle