

Calendar Blurb

- What: Summit on International Education (Preschool-Graduate School)
"Teaching and Learning in a Global Community"
- Where: Seattle, WA. University of Washington, HUB
- When: Thursday, September 18, 2003 9:00-3:00, plus 3:30-6:30 Resource Fair
- Why: Integrating an international perspective into our schools and lives is now more important than ever before. Washington State is leading the way as part of a national effort to increase the knowledge and skills needed to understand our world today.
- Who: For educators, non-profits, policy makers and interested community members. Teachers can earn clock hours and credits! Don't forget to register – the summit is free – and bento box lunches are provided to all those who register in advance.
- Web: Visit <http://internationaledwa.org/summit.htm> for more information and registration details. Write to summit@internationaledwa.org for questions.