Thank you for your leadership

All photographs ©Stefanie Felix

Wenqiu Wang
Chinese Director of Confucius Institute of the State of Washington CIWA 2014-2018
Wenqiu Wang

Through her commitment and tireless energy, Wenqiu continued to grow CIWA’s opportunities for teaching and learning Chinese language and culture and greatly expanded our partnerships with China and communities throughout Washington state, including the establishment of CIWA’s first three Confucius Classrooms.
Chief Sealth International High School Seattle School District opened its Confucius Classroom with this unveiling in 2016.
Visiting teachers introduce Chinese culture and language.
Wenqiu directed many visiting teachers at schools throughout Washington State.
Working with both students and administrators, Wenqiu’s showed expertise in promoting Chinese learning.
CI Days organized by Wenqiu and her staff were huge successes.
Students of all levels accepted awards for excellence in Chinese literacy.
Wenqiu’s connection with Chongqing brought professional performers from China to Seattle.
Wenqiu shares a moment with Seattle directors, dignitaries and winners of UW Chinese Bridge Competition.
Mandarin Immersion Kindergarteners from Dearborn Elementary School perform a Chinese song at their multicultural event providing a great example of Washington’s expansion of language and cultural learning.
Wenqiu coordinated a meeting of cultures resulting in greater appreciation and kinship.
Workshops preceding the 6th anniversary celebration furthered the collaboration with China in teaching language and culture.
Wenqiu enjoyed participating in community events such as Lunar New Year where she stands with Seattle’s Mayor Jenny Durkan.
Wenqiu and visiting teachers generated student interest in learning Chinese, visiting China, exploring global leadership while building awareness of CIWA program offerings.
WE CELEBRATE CIWA DIRECTOR WENQIU WANG!